FYSA in case you get questions— an update I sent around to related chiefs:

My boss spoke with Premier Ford just before today's avail. My boss said we needed the province at the table on policing efforts and that the current blockades are harming the economy and costing jobs. Ford responded that he understood s.37

s.37 He added that they would be announcing they are lifting a number of health restrictions, including proof of vaccinations s.37

s.37

Immediately following the media avail Ford called my boss again s.37 to say that he wouldn't be sending Minister Jones to the tripartite conversations with us and the city. He added that they were going ahead with lifting restrictions s.37
